at the TUM Think Tank & the Bavarian
Regulatory Authority for New Media

2. MULTI-STAKEHOLDER WORKSHOP

Facilitating Constructive Dialogue - Combating Online Hate Speech

Information

This workshop brings together stakeholders from academia, business, the public sector, media and civil society to address challenges related to hate speech, mis- and disinformation as well as other forms of harmful content on the Internet and to explore strategies, tactics and tools democratic societies can use to face hate online.

We - that is: the Bavarian Regulatory Authority for New Media, the Bavarian State Ministry of Justice, the Society for Civil Rights, Lumen at Harvard University, Meldestelle REspect! and the TUM Think Tank - are looking forward to shaping this event together with you as a collaborative project.

The workshop will take place on 16. & 17. November 2023 in Munich as a face-to-face event:

Day 1 - TUM Think Tank

Richard-Wagner-Str. 1 | 80333 Munich

Day 2 - Bavarian Regulatory Authority for New Media

Heinrich-Lübke-Str. 27 | 81737 Munich

The language at the workshop will be a hybrid between English and German depending on how comfortable one feels to present and/or ask questions. For non-German speakers, we will provide brief oral summaries.

Registration

Please register for the event by 12. November 2023 at the latest using the following registration link.

If you have any questions regarding the content or organizational aspects of the workshop, please do not hesitate to contact us at any time at tumthinktank@hfp.tum.de.
